

VAN DOREN STORY IN CORNERSTONE NEAR HOLY WRIT

Should archaeologists some day dig up ruins of the new Central Intelligence Agency Building, they're likely to discover the Charles Van Doren story.

For inside the structure's cornerstone, laid in ceremonies this week by President Eisenhower, are microfilm copies of newspapers that came out the same day, including details of the television personality's quiz show confession.

The diggers also may discover the inscription to be placed on the building at the request of CIA Director Allen Dulles. It will say: "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. John VIII-32."
